Cosmetic Skin Clinic wins award

The Cosmetic Skin Clinic has been voted Medical Aesthetic Clinic of the Year at the 2012 Professional Beauty Awards. Dr Tracy Mountford, founder and medical director of The Cosmetic Skin Clinic, said, "I am so proud we have won this award as it acknowledges the amazing team effort that goes into winning an accolade such as this. We were up against some strong contenders, which makes winning this award all the more rewarding. We have worked extremely hard to ensure that the level of expertise and care our patients receive is of the highest standard."

This award joins the recently accredited Gold Awards for Best Clinic, Best Clinic Customer Service and Speaker of the Year won at the prestigious Cosmetic News Aesthetic Awards at the end of 2011.
